

With a spacious living room, large well-appointed kitchen, meals and open family room, this home is perfect for the serious entertainer and a growing family. Combining three bedrooms including a generous master suite with a sizeable ensuite and walk-in robe, every family member will appreciate the freedom & space they need. A study/home office near the entry is perfect for those who wish to work at home, well away from the hustle & bustle of the rest of the household. Plenty of storage space is also provided via a large linen closet, just part of the practicality of this new design. At 24 squares with all these features, you just can't go past the Columba 24.
